Millom School Learning Journey: History

Independent Investigation completed

YEAR

Students work collaboratively to infer the meaning from sources. and judge the usefulness of the sources for a historical enquiry

University visit to raise awareness of history as a post-18 education option. Positive focus on the merits of attaining a degree for job prospects and specific careers

Complete first draft of Independent Investigation

University visit to raise awareness of history as a post-18 education option. Positive focus on the merits of attaining a degree for job

prospects and specific careers gaining the confidence to undertake self-directed learning and defining your own questions and goals.

University

A Levels

Apprenticeship

evaluating critically the significance and utility of a large body of material, including evidence from contemporary sources and the opinions of more recent historians

GCSE mock examinations importance of determination reinforced as key component of success

Understanding of the requirements of the GCSE paper are reinforced. Skills practiced for the specific question types

A-level mock examinations. importance of determination reinforced as key component of success

The Millom Learner

Determined

Communicator

Positive

Understanding

Independent

Collaborator

Investigator

Reading list in order to encourage independent learning

Students maintained a positive attitude towards learning as consolidation and knowledge recall techniques developed in preparation for GCSE examinations

Understanding of the requirements of the GCSE paper are reinforced. Skills practiced for the specific question types

Promotion of A Level History. Positive focus on the range of university courses, apprenticeships and employment routes incorporated.

Answering questions within a time frame to develop examination skills

Communication skills further developed as students form coherent and well-structured arguments through extended writing

YEAR